

College of Medicine Center for Addiction Research

Summer Speaker Series

Join us for the College of Medicine Center for Addiction Research Summer Speaker Series to discuss the innovative work and ongoing projects with the community related to prevention, intervention, and treatment.

Host: Theresa Winhusen, PhD
Donald C. Harrison Endowed Chair in Medicine
Professor of Psychiatry & Vice Chair of Addiction Sciences
Director, Center for Addiction Research, University of Cincinnati

Addressing Disparities Through Community Collaboration

Wednesday,
May 5, 2021
8:00–9:00 a.m.

Kathy Burlew, PhD
University of Cincinnati

Jamahal C. Boyd, Sr.
The Crossroads Center

Recreational Opioid Use and Viral Infections

Wednesday,
June 9, 2021
8:00–9:00 a.m.

Jason Blackard, PhD
University of Cincinnati

John Cafardi, MD
The Christ Hospital

Prenatal Opioids, Mothers, and Babies

Wednesday,
July 14, 2021
12:00–1:00 p.m.

Stephanie Merhar, MD
Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center

Angie Scroggins, BSN, RN
St. Elizabeth Healthcare

Lucy Rolfes, BSN, RN
St. Elizabeth Healthcare

"QRT+": The Role of Academic and Community Partnership in the Evolution of Outreach Intervention to Engage Individuals in Treatment for Opioid Use Disorder

Wednesday,
August 11, 2021
12:00–1:00 p.m.

Michael Lyons, MD
University of Cincinnati

Col. Thomas W. Synan, Jr.
Chief of Police, Newtown, Ohio

Registration now open for all presentations: med.uc.edu/institutes/CAR/speaker-series
The Summer Speaker Series is presented by Urban Health Pathway of Next Lives Here.